The Punishment Of My Orgy Island Guests Forever, Says God!!

"I Am very angry, My son. My people, the little children, have been abused mightily by Satan's people, My son. I will punish them all, for I Am A God of Wrath! They don't know the extent to which I will punish them for their own sexual gratification against little children and underage females, for A God of Wrath I Am, My son. Expect them to be rounded up, for their wealth cannot shield them from My wrath as it has from human justice, My son. Few are equitable with integrity to stand against wealth, for all want money when confronting the sin of the age, the rape of little women, babies, and females of underage position in life. My son, I Am A God of Wrath, and My anger knows no bounds, and my punishment of sinners is endless, forever in eternal Hell for abusing My females and children, raping them in the dark, and eating their hearts on altars of sin there at Orgy Island, and drinking their blood in service to Satan. My son, this should not be— My heart is angry, and My Mind is furious, for I know no bounds to the punishment of the Global Satanic Cult ruling the world. I know all members, even the Illuminati is known to Me, all Freemasons, and others not named, for I will punish forever all who usurp the governments of the world for their own material gain, My son. Forever I will roast in Hell all who participated in the Global Satanic Cult, My son. My anger knows no bounds to those who abuse little children in rebellion against Me, trying to offend and anger Me, the Living God, which they have succeeded with eternal consequences. So go on sinning, oh evil ones of the Earth, for I will repay all involved in the Global Satanic Cult who were eating and roasting My little children on altars of sin down there at Orgy Island, for I Am A God of Wrath, and recompense I will all evildoers of sin! Your God has spoken, amen and amen forever, My son! Amen!"
